PRIVACY NOTICE

1. Your personal information is precious

We, iA Financial Group and its affiliates¹, are doing everything we can to protect the personal information you entrust to us. That is why we are committed to continually reassessing our practices, keeping them up to date and in line with the high standards regarding your privacy and management of your personal information.

2. What we are doing to protect your personal information

First and foremost, what constitutes personal information? It is information that concerns you and can be used to identify you, directly or indirectly.

2.1 We operate on the basis of 4 important principles

The following principles govern how we ensure your privacy:

- Ensure secure management. We implement good management and safeguard practices to secure your personal information and oversee its use.
- Respect your rights. You have rights related to the personal information we hold about you. You may exercise them at any time.
- Be transparent. We provide you with all relevant information about our privacy practices.
- Act responsibly. Our employees, suppliers and representatives (including our financial services advisors) must comply with our privacy practices. Our Chief Privacy Officer sees to ensure that they do and that our practices are always up to date.

2.2 We only collect personal information that is necessary

From whom do we collect your personal information

We collect your personal information primarily from you. We may also collect it from others, depending on the circumstances and the products or services you have with us. For example:

- Your employer

We may disclose your personal information outside of Canada

We store your personal information primarily in Canada, but we may sometimes disclose it to parties outside of Canada. For example, if we are doing business with a supplier based in another country. In this case, we contractually ensure that our supplier meets our expectations in terms of managing and protecting your personal information. Before we transfer your personal information outside of Canada, we ensure that it is adequately protected.

We may also disclose your personal information to another Canadian province or territory.

2.5 We obtain your consent, except in certain cases prescribed by law

When do we obtain your consent

We obtain your consent before we collect, use or disclose your personal information. We may obtain consent directly from you. It may also be obtained from another person, such as your financial services advisor, employer, car dealer, etc.

We will request your consent again if we wish to use or disclose your personal information for a purpose to which you have not consented.

When do we not request your consent

In some cases, the law permits us to collect, use or disclose your personal information without your consent.

Here are a few examples:

- Disclosing your personal information to suppliers for a purpose outlined in this notice, to provide you with the requested product or service
- Conduct statistical studies using de-identified personal information, where permitted by law
- Take appropriate action if we detect potential fraud
- In Quebec only: Using your personal information if it is clearly for your benefit or for purposes related to those to which you have already agreed
- Outside of Quebec: Using or disclosing your personal information if it is clearly for your benefit and we are unable to obtain your consent

We may also be required by law to disclose personal information. For example, if ordered by a court or requested by a regulatory authority or a self-regulatory organization.

2.6 We retain your personal information for a limited time

We retain your personal information only as long as necessary to:

- Fulfill the purposes for which we collected it, and
- Meet our legal obligations

We have implemented a retention schedule. It guides us as to how long we should keep each type of personal information, depending on the context. We destroy personal information once the retention period has elapsed. The duration of this period depends, among other things, on our legal and regulatory obligations and on the time needed to protect our rights in the event of legal recourse.

We may anonymize certain personal information before destroying it and retain a copy. Once the information is anonymized, it can no longer be used to identify you and is therefore no longer deemed personal. We use it, among other things, to improve our product pricing, identify trends and establish performance indicators.

2.7 We respect your privacy rights

Manage your consent preferences

You may review and change your consent preferences for the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information at any time. Please be aware, however, that we will no longer be able to offer you our products and services if you withdraw your consent for a purpose that is essential to our relationship with you (See the section We collect your personal information for specific purposes for further details).

For optional purposes, you may withdraw your consent at any time without adversely affecting our relationship with you.

You can contact us to withdraw your consent for the following purposes:

- Improve our products and services and provide a distinctive client experience
- Keep you informed of our promotions, products, services, contests and events that may be of interest to you

Withdrawing your consent may take up to 30 days to be processed and applied.

Accessing, rectifying or deleting your personal information

You have several rights regarding the personal information we hold about you. You may exercise them at any time.

Know whether we hold personal information about you	You can ask us: <ul style="list-style-type: none">– If we hold personal information about you– How your personal information was collected, used and disclosed– If another person or organization holds your personal information for us

In some cases, we are unable to provide you with the requested information. For example: <ul style="list-style-type: none">– We share certain medical information with your health care professional. This person can then explain it to you correctly.– We cannot give you information that would reveal information about another person.
Rectify your personal information	You can request that we rectify your personal information if it is incomplete or inaccurate. You can also update it if it has changed.

Delete your personal information

You can request that we delete your personal information. Our response will depend on the situation.

If we have fulfilled the purposes for which the personal information was collected, we will delete it. However, we may retain it in order to meet our legal and regulatory obligations and protect our rights in the event of legal recourse.

If we have not yet fulfilled the purposes for which the personal information was collected, we will delete the information that is out of date, inaccurate, incomplete or no longer required. If you request that we delete the rest of your personal information, we will no longer be able to offer you our products and services.

You may submit a written request to exercise any of your rights in relation to your personal information. You will receive our written response within 30 days. If we deny your request in whole or in part, we will provide you with several pieces of information:

- Reasons for the denial
- The references of the laws and regulations that justify this denial
- Your right to challenge this denial before the privacy regulatory authority of your province or territory
- Timeframe for appealing the denial

Filing a complaint

You may file a complaint if you feel that we have mishandled your personal information.

We invite you to contact us first if you wish to file a complaint. We will take the time to analyze your complaint and work with you to resolve the situation.

You can also file a complaint with the privacy regulatory authority of your province or territory.

3. How to contact us regarding your privacy
